

July 12, 2010 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Janis Flippen Public Relations, 805-389-9495, media@oxnardsalsafestival.com

Main Stage Reserved Seating Now Available at 17th Annual Oxnard Salsa Festival

Oxnard, CA – Visitors attending the 17th Oxnard Salsa Festival, July 24-25 can get even closer to the sights and sounds of salsa with Main Stage Reserved Table Seating offered new this year. The reserved tables will be located in the Beer or Wine Garden and can seat six people. Festival goers can kick back at their own private tables under shade and enjoy a comfortable spot to view the bands, people-watch, or jump up and head to the dance floor!

The reserved table package include chips and salsa, six complimentary drink tickets good for an icy cold beer, tasty margarita or favorite glass of wine. The tables ($250 per day) can be reserved online at www.oxnardsalsafestival.com. Free seating will also continue to be available throughout the festival site, and attendees are welcome to bring their own lawn chairs for grass seating area. The Festival has a NO COOLERS and NO PETS policy.

Saturday's Main Stage Line up includes:

- Orquesta La Palabra – 11 am to 1 pm
- Community Salsa Dance Showcase – 1:15 pm to 1:45 pm
- The Janeen Puente Orchestra – 2 pm to 4 pm
- Angel Lebron y Su Sabor Latino – 4:45 pm to 6:45 pm

Sunday's Main Stage Line Up includes:

- Susie Hansen Latin Band – 11 am to 1 pm
- Dancing with Our Community Stars Dance Contest – 1 pm to 2 pm
- Ricardo Lemvo & Makina Loca – 2 pm to 4 pm
- Orquesta Tabaco y Ron – 4:45 pm to 6:45 pm